

Dear ones,

We're introducing a new look to enhance our weekly announcements! I do hope that you will better enjoy the transmissions here and that the information is valuable to you. Do let me know how you like it, there's a poll at the bottom! We've changed email platforms and done some list cleaning, so if we've gotten your first name wrong (or missing), please hit reply and let us know.

In this issue, you'll find at the bottom of the page a transmission from me about TRUST, and I'll tell you why we simply cannot live without it anymore. Also, I invite you join our ongoing Wealth Roots Women's Circle and get deeper into transformation by joining the School of Divine Empowerment. There are many ways we can work together to grow. You'll also find links to ALL my shows and archives of past shows below. Do listen in, I think you'll be inspired, not only by me but all my extraordinary guests!

Love always,

Kornelia

TRUST Life, Others, God/Source and yourself!

A transmission from Kornelia...

Beloved Tribe,

Today I want to talk about Trust. We have spoken of Trust before in previous conversations and I want to bring it up again because it is so important. Having Trust is a virtue that you simply can't live without in today's world. Think about it, in our old world where trust was misused by people, we were led to believe we could trust, only to find ourselves feeling betrayal at some point.

Many people are looking outside themselves for those whom they can trust, but are now finding that 'trust', just like love and peace, is an inside job.

There are also people walking around waiting for the other shoe to drop. Keeping themselves protected and fearful because on some level, they don't fully trust life or God/Source or even trust themselves.

Then, they project this mistrust out onto other people which keeps the separation wound active.

When I first began clearing the betrayal wound from my physical body construct, it was very painful. I had an experience where a friend betrayed me, and this hurt me so bad, I could not sit down on my butt for two weeks! This old energy was stored in my root chakra. Can you imagine feeling betrayal at the root?

The density of this deep core emotional wound was the beginning of developing my signature healing modality called "Living in Wholeness". Since then, many more core wounds came up that had to be cleared and healed, so that I could return to my true divine nature and help many others in the process. Because I work on myself 24/7 while healing, writing, creating and providing for others, I now must embody only trust. I have taken the trust back to the source where it belongs and trust in other people becomes relative.

The opposite of trust is betrayal. This energy is not part of my mental or emotional program anymore. We all have the ability to heal these core wounds. We are all looking for a tribe and people we can trust. That is becoming even more and more important in the feeling paradigm that we live in today.

From my own experience, I can tell you that once the betrayal is gone, it is now no longer an active energy in your field. You will no longer resonate with betrayal energy and won't draw in those kinds of experiences or people into your reality anymore.

All of us are creators of our reality and you don't have to continue with the loop of mistrust in your creations today. The children of today will never know what betrayal was because of the work you are doing on yourself!

What does it mean to trust?

In the new world trust is found right here as you are reading this.

I trust you.

I trust in you that you are one who will not betray yourself because you are done with that story.

Trust is found in you, in your intuition, trusting yourself and the choices you make, trusting life, trusting the Divine Feminine and trusting God/Source.

Your call to action this week is to sit and meditate on trust. Remind yourself of all that has led you to this point and that you are the one you can trust, and that every thought, action and deed is an energy of trust that you are bringing to the environment. Trust.
