

Hi Friends,

I recently woke up with fear fear to clear fear exposing itself

This time it's about uncertainty. Trusting Life without a plan. Saying YES first, allowing the plan come later.

So what I AM I doing?

I'm devoted to my Mastery. I'm devoted to the light choosing the highest branches to the deepest roots. Choosing to unite to Source. Moment to moment trusting this period of uncertainty becoming conscious of my creation - miracles manifest.

Not knowing what's next, trusting my way forward, trusting myself with each step I take. Feeling from my abundant core pure thoughts, abundant thoughts that invoke emotions in me that are in Integrity with my truth.

I'm tending to my vibration with every soft loving thought, with every grounded graceful step I take. I assert myself taking action on my ideas being fulfilled from my desires. This loving frequency I emit, not knowing what's next, being ok with that. All I desire is being drawn to me!

I love Being,
I love Being a Woman,
Magnetic, Fulfilled, On Purpose, Clear,
Sovereign, IAM.

I choose love, I choose unity, I choose the high road. My greatest power is to allow.
Miracles happen all the time.

What does a miracle in your life look like?
