

Hi Friends,

This Summer Solstice as you are slowing down to feel what's important to you now,

I remind you to choose-----the greatest love of all like you have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

The Ultimate portal to your freedom is "NOW" and all it requires is a choice on your end. Choosing Peace, Choosing a new Life, Choosing to experience unconditional love will set you free.

"You can have anything and everything even a whole new world to live in."

In January of 2018 I was interviewed by "Girl Warrior Productions" A Female-Empowered-Revolution. Empowering Women in Leadership in today's world.

On Being a Girl Warrior:

In the movie, "Wonder Woman", Gal Gadot had to fight the God of War to be true to her core values of living in peace and goodness in the land she inhabited. She was passionate about creating a safe environment for the children and their parents. She left the paradise she was raised in to face whatever darkness lay ahead because in her heart of hearts she knew love would win. She knew she would destroy the God of War. She was passionate about this knowing. She had convinced her mother, her tribe, and her community, to let her go.

She knew she had the power to stand up to the enemy. It never occurred to her that she could lose. This is what makes me a Girl Warrior also. I have the same spirit and love for this planet and her people. This is why I am here, to do my part, and to bring my courage and my love, knowing how valuable this is. How valuable I AM. And you are, too.

Knowing that what I do for myself, I do for all... and knowing that energy is contagious and goodness will spread. I have learned that Peace is an inside job and in order for peace to happen, I have to bring it first to myself, my community and my relationships. There can be no cover-ups, no hiding. Only truth, goodness and radical self-love.

We signed up to come here to transcend this energy. It never occurred to us that we could lose because in our heart of hearts we have always known love is the answer to all. So God sent billions of offspring onto this planet to bring the love of heaven here now.

Just like the movie, the same holds true for each of our awakenings. We awake from a deep slumber to discover we are here on this prison-planet that has been overtaken by many gods of war. The money-gods controlling and manipulating to keep the rich richer (don't get me wrong, I love money), the pedophiles using their power to abuse innocent children, the slimy, negative people who have lost their way and so many more. It is our job now to remember that we are not victims but powerful creators, here to make a difference. Our evolution is calling us women - men and children - who are brave, courageous souls and have had enough. We are standing up to the Gods of War to bring peace and love to the land we inhabit.

We are to be the consciousness-caretakers of our earth home, Mother Earth, this gorgeous, living being that has been abused for so long. Every negative emotion and negative action, every crime and rape that she has lived and endured is unbearable. It's unacceptable for our time. The time has come where she is now receiving her matching reality by us taking care of her the way she has been taking care of us for thousands of years. We do it by honoring our physical bodies as we honor the earth and that is the New Human.

We are each becoming "Girl Warriors", being the mother of the mother and loving each other home and free. That is the rising of the divine feminine in each of us. Whether man, woman, or child, the energy of the Mother is here to stay.

There are many of us who have been in training and have been in preparation for lifetimes that are now modeling the Christ- consciousness, being fully embodied, living examples of the new evolutionary leaders tirelessly working to use our wisdom and not weapons to love this planet free in order that all of us can take our rightful place on this planet living in harmony with nature, with the Mother.

Out of 7 Billion people on this planet, how many will return to the light? How many will return to the truth?

Each person gets to choose. Will they choose love over fear? Will they choose to speak their voice?

Will they transcend the toxic karmic relationship of the past for the new? Will they be able to offer forgiveness?

While being a "Girl Warrior" has not been easy. It was not easy for Wonder Woman either. But it does get easier once you access your superpowers and have transcended and processed and loved-free the emotional core wounds of the past, one layer at a time.

It does get easier, it actually becomes fun and is exciting to wake up each day being led by your intuitive guidance, rather than being a slave in a hamster wheel running around to keep one step ahead of emptiness and loneliness.

Three life changing questions to ask your inner lover what's next for you.

- What's missing from my life right now?
- What kind of lifestyle have you dreamed of in the past that you have laid aside as silly or impractical.
- How does it make you feel when you are experiencing your ideal day?

Draw, write, or journal it out.

Happy Solstice,

*Love always,
Kornelia*
