My Journey

If you are anything like me, falling in love with my life and who I am at my core was not an easy task. My childhood had me well-prepared never to acknowledge myself and to put my own needs aside. I remember a time in my life when I felt so much shame, unworthiness and powerlessness I did not think I could go on with my life and several times I wanted to commit suicide. I was always looking outside of myself for approval. When everything was falling apart around me, I hoped someone would come to my rescue. What a long and painful path it was to claim my worth and love each and every part of myself into wholeness.

Today it is hard for me to imagine that I ever had a thought that was attached to a belief that was attached to an emotion that I was not good enough and that I used to make choices that reflected that belief.

My life's work has been to undo all the old conditioning, old beliefs, and to heal my emotional core-wounds. Through this work, I achieved a high level of self-mastery which I have been able to pass on to many others through my retreats and personal sessions. I enjoy facilitating such events so that others experience a deeper and truer connection to who they are and how extraordinary their life can become at any age.

The point of power is always in the present moment. The conscious, present, now moment!

- With no consciousness (energy in the past), because YOU have released all the past from your physical body and from your experience!.
- With no energy in the future which does not exist.

In the future, you're always looking for something that you think you will get when you get to there. When you get to the future, you'll be happy, you will have succeeded, you will have your relationship, and you will have your abundance. You keep projecting the energy into the future, which is an illusion and keeps you from experiencing the absolute truth, that can only be experienced in the PRESENT MOMENT. Bring it all into the NOW moment — this is the place for Freedom, JOY, Abundance, Power, Creation and Manifestation. Bring your conscious awareness into the NOW moment where you merge with your humanity (earth) and bring your divinity (heaven), and you have met YOURSELF. Now do that every conscious now moment and you are “Heaven on Earth.”
