

A photograph of the Statue of Liberty in New York City, set against a dramatic sky at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, glowing light. The Statue of Liberty is the central focus, holding her torch high in her right hand and a tablet in her left. The overall mood is patriotic and hopeful.

Hi Friends,

~ Sending You Blessings This 4th of July ~

Happy, Happy Independence Day, My Friends,
Every space has a consciousness; the house you live in, the car you drive, the place of your work, and the land you live on.
Our beautiful Lady America has consciousness also, and has a destiny.

~ America, the Beautiful ~ America, the Free ~

She stands for all things strong and meaningful.
This is not our usual 4th of July celebration with everything that we've been going through the past six months. I want to invite you to focus your conscious awareness and gratitude on behalf of our beautiful America. When we tune in to her we can sense and feel how tired She is. We've seen precisely how much She has endured; so much slander, so much shame, and have seen so many toxic and negative emotions deposited onto her. So, please, let's send her some Love. Please join me in treating Lady America with tenderness, especially today when so many of us are celebrating our freedom. Let us give thanks.

Let's offer our land so much compassion for how great She is and for what She stands for. Let us celebrate her beauty. Let us stand by her, and support her in her destiny of being the beautiful Land of the Free and the land of the people who honor each other. Let us rise to live into our highest human potential.

"The name AMERICA is an anagram for the I AM RACE. This name was intended to reflect a race of God-conscious people who are comprised of ALL races, ALL nationalities, ALL cultures, ALL religions, ALL creeds and ALL lifestyles. A race of people who are functioning within the full embrace of their I AM presence reflecting Oneness, Divine Love, and Reverence for ALL life. The plan was that within this consciousness of Oneness, American citizens would revel in our diversities and collectively make decisions and take actions that reflect only the highest good for ALL concerned, thus allowing EVERYONE to live in prosperity, equality, peace and happiness"

~ Patrica Cota-Robles quote ~

May all people respect the Land of the Free & the Land of the Beautiful.
May God Bless America and ALL of her people, and may ALL of her people BLESS America.

May all beings on Planet Earth, Celebrate World Independence. Free to live in our Sovereignty.

America, We Love You!

Thank You, My Lovely Community &
Happy 4th of July!

Harmoniously yours, Kornelia

A 4th of July Message

HAPPY, HAPPY ANNIVERSARY Handle the Lump, Heal your Life!

It all started one year ago in May when we decided to endeavor into the discovery of what it means to get a breast cancer diagnosis and then the subsequent meaning we make and attachment to it on the road to recovery with all the ups and downs. Handling cancer is about so much more than “treating” the disease in your body because it requires a deep-dive odyssey into the mystery of the messages to heal your whole life. It all began with a lump that was repeatedly missed by the diagnostic “machine” of modern medicine. The “lump” ultimately resulted in a quest for radical hope, heart, and healing for a whole new way of being in the world. Handle the Lump, Heal your Life is rich with resources from global authorities in the cancer community to empower women and inspire hope.

need it to get the things that you want, to be successful...to live the American Dream. I bought into this for over 35 years. I lived with the stress and hopelessness of carrying this weight on my shoulders. I was not living the life I wanted but I didn't know how to get out. Now I am leading the way and showing others how this life with out debt is possible.
