I Champion Humanity's Sovereignty!

THE AUTHORITY OVER ONE'S OWN LIFE OVER EMPOWERED CREATION

KORNELIASTEPHANIE.COM

Hi Friends,

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS OF THE WORLD.

Remember this, Evolution is inherently unfamiliar. We are at the precipice of building our new world on a new foundation of our values and our principles. Every conscious human being is setting up a new infrastructure within their own physical body, their home, their gardens, and their community. It's happening locally first in your community. Each Person is a Universe within themselves. In the next six months, we are laying the framework and building with every conscious thought, with every joyous feeling in the community for the community because love is the action, and peace is the way.

And so it is.

You have heard me say many times...

Take responsibility for your life.

Claim your power. Claim your authority over anything outside of yourself

(This includes me and what I share with you)

The Buddha says "Do not believe anything from any outside teachers, angels, or gods (including the elders) unless you have explored it within your own heart and consciousness and found it to be true."

This is my primary principle of how I make decisions in my life. I examine each choice I make through the consciousness of my heart and then I take a stand in it.

How do you feel about wearing a mask? Where do you stand on it?

Last week I posted this question out onto Facebook and I was surprised at the 91 plus comments I received back on this topic. I'm glad I asked, because each person is responsible for their own choices and each person has their own views and preferences. There are three sides, yours, mine and the truth.

When COVID first came out, I had immediately "programmed" both my body and my mind that I do not wish to be a host for it; that my body will not be a host for the coronavirus. I absolutely will not host COVID anywhere in my house (body).

Hosting COVID is an experience I won't have!

As far as wearing a mask, I AM okay with it. I don't have a problem with it at all. When the COVID issue first came out in March, my friend, Dennis Gaither (a doctor and friend and co-host on the Kornelia Stephanie show) and I were planning a hike. He asked me, "Will you be wearing a mask?" Without even thinking about it, I said, "No, I will not be."

I asked him if he'd be wearing one, and he said he would be. He then explained to me the reasoning behind his choice. He said that since we do not yet know enough about this virus, it truly IS a matter of remaining safe and of protecting ourselves and one another.

Due to the fact that the virus is so contagious, safeguarding is a good thing to do, despite the fact that I had already programmed my body to not be a host to COVID-19. That was when I changed my mind about wearing a mask and I feel good about my choice today.

It doesn't bother me to go to the store and put a mask on for the short time that I am there. It doesn't bother me one bit to honor any place of business that requires their patrons to wear masks. I see it like this; because I value and respect the choices people make, I can and will honor this.

Thankfully, I do not need to wear a mask to work since I work from home. However, if I had a job where I was required to wear a mask for a full 8 hours per day, I would feel a need to either modify my workday or to find a new ways to work at my job or find a new one.

In the meantime, where do you stand on wearing a mask?
How do you feel about it?

I hope you have time to read how many people are taking a stand for where they are.
